

General Atlantic Closes on First Technology Buyouts Transaction with $450 Million Investment in Coupa Software Acquisition

Acquisition was led by Thoma Bravo in an all-cash transaction valued at approximately $8 billion

New York, NY—February 28— General Atlantic, a leading global growth equity firm, announced today that it has completed a $450 million minority investment in the acquisition of Coupa Software, a leader in Business Spend Management (BSM). The agreement to be acquired was previously announced on December 12, 2022, and approved by Coupa stockholders at Coupa’s Special Meeting of Stockholders held on February 23, 2023. Jonathan Durham, Managing Director and Head of Technology Buyouts at General Atlantic, will join Coupa as a board observer.

“Coupa is a pioneer of cloud-based business spend management and continues its mission to innovate in this important and growing software category,” said Jonathan Durham, Managing Director and Head of Technology Buyouts at General Atlantic. “Marking the first transaction from our Technology Buyouts group, we believe Coupa is emblematic of the high quality companies with strong market position and durable growth we seek to invest behind. We are excited to back Rob and the dedicated management team at Coupa, and partner with Thoma Bravo to support Coupa’s future.”
