

John Toriello

Managing Director Global Head of Portfolio Management and Due Diligence

Office Location: New York

John Toriello is a Managing Director at General Atlantic and Global Head of Portfolio Management and Due Diligence. John is responsible for monitoring portfolio company fundamental performance, liquidity planning and the due diligence process across all General Atlantic investments, and is a member of the Valuation Committee of the firm.

Before joining General Atlantic in 2021, John was a Managing Director at Blackstone and held a variety of roles in the corporate finance function, as well as supporting investment professionals and portfolio companies on finance matters. Prior to Blackstone, John was a partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers advising on acquisitions, divestitures and capital markets transactions.

Education

Lehigh University, B.S., Business & Economics

Community Involvement

Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss, Circle of Hope Member and Volunteer
Matthew Thomas Toriello Memorial Fund, Board Member